

PRESS RELEASE

29.09.2014

THIEVES were interrupted early this morning during an attempted break and enter at StGiles Disability Service, Newstead.

StGiles communications manager Danielle Blewett said that the StGiles community was saddened that their service had been targeted.

“We are grateful that nothing was stolen and apologise to the families whose therapy sessions were cancelled or disrupted,” Ms Blewett said.

Tasmania Police collected evidence at the scene and have asked for people who might have seen or heard anything suspicious between 4am and 5am to contact Crime Stoppers.
